A Message from the Town Manager

It seems that society tends to pick up its pace starting every January 2. One example is that gyms suddenly become full of people embarking on new fitness goals and resolutions. The challenge is to stay the course and not drop off. This month, I want to share some of the goals that we have been working on for some time and assure you that we are trying to stay the course.

At its January 10 Board meeting, the Waxhaw Board of Commissioners approved accepting a Deed of Trust for the old Waxhaw water tank. Since its construction in the 1940's through the 1980's, the water tank has served the Town in the storing and providing of water. In the 1980's, the Town agreed to merge its system with Union County and the tank and sliver of land transferred to Union County. At some point, lightning struck the tank and it has been without water and disconnected from the County's system. In addition to providing water, the water tank has served as a type of lighthouse for the Town. Many people knew that they were almost home when they saw the water tank. It is as much of our downtown as the overhead bridge and our wonderful buildings. Many local photos feature the water tank. Plans are underway to protect and preserve it so that current and future generations will enjoy this symbol of downtown.

Another important step was taken on January 10 when the Board of Commissioners agreed to support the Parks and Recreation Advisory Committee's request that $30,000 be appropriated from the David G. Barnes Park Capital Fund to complete the renovation of the old police department. This structure has served the town for many years. Constructed in the 1920s, the building has been used for many things including a health department, hot dog stand, t-shirt shop, and once at the same time a town hall and police department.

Several years ago the police department moved out and the building was used as storage. A building not being used will deteriorate quickly, and this was the likely future of this building if a proactive approach had not been taken. For the last two years, we have worked to address drainage and landscaping issues that impact the building's condition. A historically correct color for the exterior was chosen and done along with other enhancements to protect the exterior of the building.

We are now at the final step of interior renovation. Our plans are to completely gut the interior and create a unisex restroom along with a kitchenette. The floor space will be reconfigured to allow for a more open area. We plan to make this space a community space which could be rented for various small gatherings. The Parks and Recreation Advisory Committee is being asked to develop policies and propose rental rates for the facility once it is completed. I am excited and know you will be also.

I hope you are having a good year so far. As always, my door is open and you may reach me at 704-843-2195 or mmclaurin@waxhaw.com.

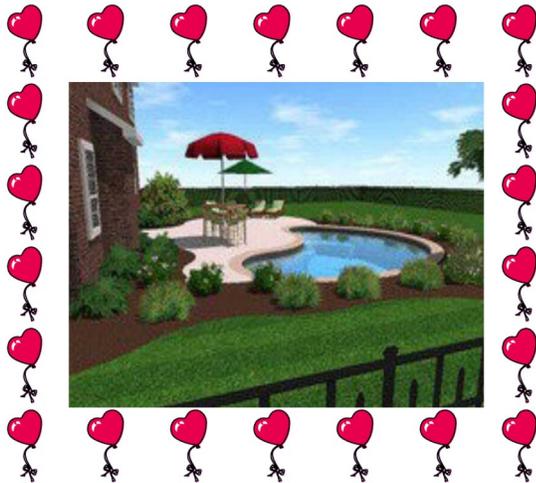

Mike McLaurin - Waxhaw Town Manager

Main Street Grill Grand Reopening

Lisa Vigil and Jeff Peters are best friends. Best friends that are now business partners as the new owners of The Main Street Grill in historic downtown Waxhaw. Lisa and Jeff purchased the business the day before Thanksgiving and got to work right away on a plan to expand the restaurant, extend its hours of operation, and add some new menu items. They expanded the restaurant into the former nail salon next to Fuzion Hair Salon. The space includes additional seating, renewed décor, five television screens, and The Ice House Saloon, named after the ice house that used to be located where the restaurant's outdoor patio seating now sits.

Waxhaw residents used to hang out at the ice house so the name has some nostalgia for Josh Gaskey who remains as head chef at the Grill. Lisa and Jeff take that nostalgia to heart because they want The Main Street Grill to be inviting, to be a family hangout just like the ice house was before.

As part of its expanded menu, The Main Street Grill will offer its traditional menu items as before, but also daily food specials and menu pairings with good craft beers and wines from The Ice House Saloon. As an example of a pairing, for instance, a BBQ sauce on wings with one of the beers on tap that night would be featured. Jeff plans on featuring many North Carolina wines and beers at the saloon.

Jeff and Lisa are no strangers to the restaurant business. Lisa has been involved in customer service and catering, while Jeff's family owned and operated restaurants while he was growing up. Most recently, Jeff managed operations for a national plastic distribution company. The business partners had been searching for two years to find just the right restaurant to invest in. They never found the right place until now. Being in the right place at the right time brings things together sometimes, and this was one of those instances. Jeff worked with Kevin Wagner at the plastic distribution company. Kevin's wife is Ann Wagner who is co-owner of Fuzion Hair Salon. They started talking about the possibilities and the rest as they say is now history in the making at The Main Street Grill.

Customers who patronized The Main Street Grill before the remodel will be amazed at the transformation of the restaurant's interior. Head chef Josh Gaskey's father-in-law, Bobby Cox, did the construction work following plans mainly designed by Jeff with a little décor input from Lisa and fellow customers.

The extended hours for The Main Street Grill are:
Monday closed
Tuesday-Wednesday-Thursday 7 a.m. - 8 p.m.
Friday 7 a.m. - 10 p.m.
Saturday 8 a.m. - 10 p.m.
Sunday 8 a.m. - 6 p.m. serving breakfast until noon

The official grand opening and ribbon cutting for the grill will be on Tuesday, February 7 at 2 p.m. Stop in and give Jeff and Lisa and The Main Street Grill crew a big Waxhaw welcome.

TIP OF THE MONTH:

Don't put up with smelly pet breath anymore!

- * Brushing your pet's teeth is the best way to fight bad breath at home. Remember do not use human toothpaste and be sure to reward your pet afterward with play or a nice walk!
- * What your pet eats affects his smile. Dry foods and treats can help clean plaque from teeth.
- * Talk to your veterinarian about annual teeth cleaning. A cleaning performed by your vet is the only way to remove tartar build up. Next time you schedule a cleaning for yourself, be sure to make your pet's cleaning appointment as well.

Teaspoons Coffee Shoppe opens on Main

Need a cup of coffee? How about an ice cream cone? Or some chocolates? Then come on down to Teaspoons Coffee Shoppe on Main Street in downtown Waxhaw. Coffee, ice cream and chocolates are just a few of the items you'll find on hand there.

Andrea Knowles, owner of Teaspoons, wants to create a social environment where people can just come and hang out, bring their kids in for an ice cream cone, or just sit and chat. Andrea opened Teaspoons on January 21st. "I decided to open here in Waxhaw because of the location on Main Street and the walk-in traffic," said Andrea,

"People still walk the streets in downtown Waxhaw and there are more events here that promote the downtown." Andrea owned Teaspoons Coffee Shoppe on Franklin Street in Monroe for many years but closed the shop back in 2007. She's lived in Waxhaw for 17 years.

Teaspoons features S&D gourmet coffee. S&D coffee has been roasted right here in North Carolina since 1927 and is found in hotels, restaurants, universities and businesses across the country. Not a coffee fan? There are several tea options as well, like cranberry apple, orange and spice, and chamomile and mint for those needing a little bit of relaxation in a cup. And for the children, there's FREE gourmet hot chocolate everyday. Try the double fudge or the chocolate graham, or perhaps the artic white.

Of course, what's a hot drink without a scoop of ice cream to coat your insides? Or perhaps a milk shake or blended coffee drink? Teaspoons carries Deluxe brand ice cream made in Mooresville, North Carolina since 1924. Over 24 different flavors are offered including the all-time children's favorite - birthday cake, as well as others like banana pudding, fudge ripple, cherry vanilla, key lime pie, and for the real coffee lover - deluxe espresso ice cream. There are also sugar free varieties sweetened with Splenda for those watching their weight including almond amaretto and chocolate caramel pecan flavors.

Don't forget the chocolates, please. Remember Valentine's Day is right around the corner! Teaspoons also carries Ms. Chocolates luscious flavors made from the best ingredients and hand-picked fruits, nuts, coffee beans and premium quality chocolate.

For those good in the kitchen, you'll find quality baking mixes from The New England Cupboard to bring home including several pancake and muffin mixes, and the Whoopie Pie mix. Now who doesn't remember a Whoopie Pie from their youth? Anyone? If you don't, you have to come and buy a package and try them out.

Haven't heard enough about the goodies inside this shop yet? Then take yourself home a variety of canned goodness from jams and salsas to pickles and apple, peach, or pumpkin butter. You'll even find canned sweet baby beets and sweet baby corn.

Oh and one last thing. Looking for a quick lunch? Teaspoons also offers deli sandwiches including BLT's, chicken or tuna salad, club sandwiches and a veggie pita, among others. Salads and soups are also on the menu.

With so much to offer, you've got to give Teaspoons Coffee Shoppe a try. For a complete menu, and shoppe hours log onto www.teaspoonswaxhaw.com.

CNT Fitness Opens on Providence Road South

Serious training for serious athletes. That's what CNT Fitness and its certified fitness trainers guarantee. One look at these guys and you know they are serious about athletic training. Then add their credentials with over 40 years of fitness experience among them and you can erase any doubt you might have. These guys have designed specific training techniques that help develop athletes to excel in the sport they strive to master. They train athletes on a case-by-case basis beginning with middle school students on up, working with each participant individually to show them how to do each exercise, and why training with a variety of styles or methods will strengthen and improve their overall performance.

"We take what athletes go through on the field and apply those same type of movements in a controlled environment," said Chad Richer.

The CNT Prowler Challenge

Chad is one of four involved in this business venture. The venture is a partnership between Tim Dailey, Chad Richer, Nick Richer, and Bob VanScoy. Tim, Chad and Nick are owners and CNT's personal fitness trainers. Trey McNeil is also on board as a trainer. You'll notice right away who Bob is. He's the guy sitting behind the computer or walking around with his tablet in hand. Bob is also president of the Charlotte Lacrosse Foundation (www.charlottelacrosse.org). The Foundation's goal is to encourage and promote the sport of lacrosse in the Carolinas by removing any obstacles that prevent players from learning and participating in the sport. The Foundation also annually awards the Mike VanScoy Memorial Sportsmanship Award to a youth lacrosse player in the Charlotte area.

Training with CNT Fitness includes small group training with no more than four athletes per instructor. The programs are designed to develop strength, power, conditioning, linear and lateral speed, mobility and flexibility, core stability, injury reduction and proper nutrition.

In addition, adult group training and boot camps, including CNT Fitness for Moms, are offered.

For more information on CNT Fitness log onto www.cntfitness.com.

Town Commissioner Brett Diller officially welcomes the CNT Fitness Team to Waxhaw
