

Character Inspiration

Branding through design

Opportunity to "say Waxhaw" in the way we build

The UDO will include sections on design guidance - intending to help developers, designers and builders ensure high quality projects that advance the community's visual identity. Here are some ideas from the current branding project that may influence what's included in the UDO. Are these on target?

